Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Where is the lack of clearness about it?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—Now it is clear (laughter).

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Am I to understand that intelligent men could not have anticipated this even from the question?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—It is a matter of opinion. The degree of intelligence is infinite.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—(b) Am I to understand that my question is answered?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—It is answered as it is.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—May I know what more you can do?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—I confess I cannot add anything to it just now, unless I get some further enlightenment from the Member from a private talk.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—No hope of it.

Solution for agrarian discontent in the State.

244. Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Government be pleased to state how they are impressed with the solution, partial at least, of agrarain discontent and the difficulties of judgment-debtors in Bhavanagar under the conditions similar to our State and what they intend to do here in the matter?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—The question is far too vague to be answered.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Will the Government be pleased to state whether they are aware of the Agriculturists Debt Redemption Scheme and the Agriculturists Protection Act that are being successfully worked out in Bhavanagar?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—I also looked into it I wanted to know what was being done there. But the administration report did not give any information. I thought I might get better information from the Hon'ble Member. Bhavanagar is far away from here.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—How can you say that the question is vague.

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—That is the view of the Government.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Could you not have collected the information and then answered?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—Time is a great factor. I can assure the Member that we have written to the Bhavanager State. Sir Prabha Sankar Pattani has made some economic survey.

Mr. K. M. Ibrahim.—Could you not have answered it in the light of that fact ?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—I am sorry it did not strike us then.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Will the Government be pleased to look into that and see whether there is anything there which can be supplied to our State ?

Rao Bahadur Mr. T. V. Kasturi Ranga Ayyar.—Yes.

Staff-quarters not open to all castes and creeds.

245. Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Will the Government be pleased to state the number of staff-quarters maintained by the Government without making them useful to all Government servants irrespective of caste or creed ?

Mr. M. D. Narayana Ayyar.—One. The Hindu Staff-quarters at Vadakkancheri.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—What steps have been taken by the Government to throw open the Hindu Staff quarters at Vadakkancheri ?

Mr. M. D. Narayana Ayyar.—That question is under consideration. Whether it should be thrown open to all or not is being enquired into.

Mr. T. A. Ramachandra Ayyar.—Does it form part of the Palace ?

Mr. M. D. Narayana Ayyar.—It was a palace once upon a time. Now it is used as a Hindu staff-quarters.

Mr. K. Ayyappan.—Is there any typed instruction attached to the staff-quarters at Ernakulam that it is not at present open to all classes of people ?

Mr. M. D. Narayana Ayyar.—I am not aware of any such prohibition.
